ENGLAND.

LONDON, June 29.—At a meeting yesterday of the conference on the Egyptian question, Granville briefly stated the financial proposals to be considered. The conference then adjourned to allow finance experts to determine the proposal. The date of the next meeting was not fixed. The Observer believes the proposals have in view a reduction of interest on the unified 4 per cent. debt and on the privileged debt, each to one half of the present.

LONDON, June 29.—A special report in regard to cholera in France gives a greater number of deaths than the official returns. Richard, chief of the naval health department, reports the number of victims at Toulon eight or ten daily; that the aggregate number of deaths is 14 in the navy and 31 in the town, and that there are 62 patients in the naval hospital. Rumors are current that the commander of the Sarthe committed suicide. The act was the result of remorse for having introduced cholera into France.

The mosquito plague at Marseilles still increases. There is a gloomy aspect. Thousands of bonfires are kindled in various parts of the city to disperse the pests.

Gibraltar now refuses entrance to French ships.

FRANCE.

MARSEILLES, June 29.—No cases of cholera in hospitals here. The general health of the inhabitants is on an average condition. The board of health refuses to issue to vessels a clear bill of health.

TOULON, June 29.—At noon to-day four deaths from cholera had occurred during the preceding eighteen hours.

PARIS, June 27.—It is reported that Admiral Courbet has been instructed to demand a public apology of China, as well as indemnity for violation of the treaty at Langson; and in case China refuses a French fleet will bombard Chinese cities.

ITALY.

ROME, June 29.—Enormous crowds attended the celebration of St. Peter's day. Many policemen were on hand, but no disturbance occurred.

All overland passengers from France are subjected to five days' quarantine.

RUSSIA.

ODESSA, June 29.—A number of Jews have been returned here as destitute British subjects from Cyprus, whither they had emigrated to avoid persecution. The British consul is sending them to their homes in the interior.

SPAIN.

MADRID, June 29.—The authorities will quarantine against all English ships unless England adopts precautions against the spread of the cholera.

EGYPT.

SUAKIN, June 29.—Figaro's correspondent, Oliver Paine, who recently left Esneh in an attempt to penetrate to El Obeid, was attacked on the desert by Arabs and robbed. He endeavored to reach the river, but nearly perished from fatigue and thirst. His dragoman expired from the effects of sunstroke. Pella found and carried him to Edfou, where he was arrested. The authorities refuse to permit him to telegraph to the French consul. Paine will sue the Egyptian government for false imprisonment.

CALIFORNIA.

RED BLUFF, June 29.—The planing mil and sash and door factory belonging to L. C. Grupner, and one of the largest in the state, was burned last night. Loss, $70,000; insured for $44,000. It is not known whether it will be rebuilt.

The charge against Captain Maury, of the steamer City of Tokio, of having concealed a case of small-pox on his vessel, was dismissed to-day, no carelessness or criminal intent to conceal having been shown.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The World says: "A number of rumors gained currency on Wall street yesterday, which were denied, which stated that the Northern Pacific would have to borrow more money to pay its July interest. President Harris and Drexel, Morgan & Co. denied this.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The Sun says: "The launch of a new Cunarder, with a 12,500 horse power engine, warns the America, Oregon and Alaska to look after their laurels. We shall doubtless see the trip across the Atlantic done in less than six days."

LYNCHBURG, Pa., June 29.—On account of the failure of the air brakes to work, the Virginia Midland express ran at an unaccountable speed on to the bridge over the James river. The Washington and New York sleepers fell through into ten feet of water. Passengers were taken through a hole cut in the ventilators into the postal cars. There were about forty passengers. All were saved. After the water had covered the top of the windows, Mrs. Tarden pushed her two months' old child through the window and held it above water until rescued. The mother was then rescued.

The Settlement of the Island.

TO THE EDITOR:—I have just returned after making another trip to the Cowichan valley, in company with three or four gentlemen farmers lately arrived here from the east. They were in search of some farming land, so we travelled up one side and down the other side of the Cowichan river for quite a distance, and in that tramp we noticed several alder bottom patches containing ten to fifty acres in them. Then we saw lots more fir timbered land. Some of this is not so heavily timbered as some people think it is, especialy where the tall fern grows the trees may be large, but not so many on an acre. I must say in justice to this country that there are hundreds of acres of land to settle on this island of Vancouver, other than alder or prairie, only more expensive to clear up, but which, when cleared will be very remunerative land to farm. Most of our new settlers are anxious to find farms all prairie, they say they might take one-half prairie. I have told some of these prairie hunters that I thought they would have to go to work with an axe and make prairie. The fact is there never was much prairie to be had on this island, and the first settlers secured it, but they say it is not half as fertile as if it had been timbered land. But to find untimbered land on the island, it will be necessary to go towards the upper end, say Salmon, Bear or Namkish rivers, and there might be some on Sumas river. I believe when the Island railway survey is completed that land will be taken up, that no person would have thought of before for timber lands, and that portable saw mills will be brought by rail and set up in the midst of the magnificent groves of fir timber to be found there. The saw mill might thus be taken along the track from place to place. The railroad owners will be glad to bring this lumber to market, and in this way our island timber might be made available and the land cleared at the same time. I almost think I hear some old Cowich an growler say what will the lands be good for when the timber is taken off. I would reply that these lands will likely have heavy fires running over them which will destroy everything but the stumps. Stock men will buy these old burnt lands and seed them down to grass, and feed excellent stock, and this is the way that our lumber lands will probably be cleared up some day not far distant. At any rate this is an idea of an old settler. W. M. H.

The King of Grain Harvesters.

In the year 1883 there were 18,000 Deering Twine Binders sold, and for the present year of 1884 the manufacturers are making 25,000 of these celebrated machines. This is no baby binder, but cut a swath 6 feet 4 inches in width without the inside horse walking in the standing grain. The new Knotter for this year is the success of the age. These machines are simple, light and strong, and easier on a team than any other machine made. Sole agent for B. C., E. C. Prior, Victoria, B. C.

STEINWAY & SONS' PIANOS.

LETTER FROM DR. FRANZ LISZT, THE GREATEST LIVING TONE-MASTER.

WEIMAR, November, 1883.

MR. STEINWAY:

MOST ESTEEMED SIR:—Again I owe you many and special thanks. The new Steinway Grand is a glorious masterpiece in power, sonority, singing quality and perfect harmonic effects, affording delight even to my old piano-weary fingers. Ever continuing success remains a beautiful attribute of the world-renowned firm of Steinway & Sons.

In your letter, highly esteemed sir, you mention some new features in the Grand Piano, viz.: The vibrating body being bent into form out of one continuous piece, and that portion of the strings heretofore lying dormant, being now a part of and thus incorporated as partial tones into the foundation tones. Their utility is emphatically guaranteed by the name of the inventor.

Owing to my ignorance of the mechanism of piano construction, I can but praise the magnificent result in the "volume and quality of sound."

In relation to the use of your welcome tone-sustaining pedal, I inclose two examples: "Danse des Sylphes," by Berlioz, and No. 3 of my "Consolations."

I have to-day noted down only the introductory bars of both pieces, with this proviso, that, if you desire it, I shall gladly complete the whole transcription, with exact adaptation of your tone-sustaining pedal. Very respectfully and gratefully,

F. LISZT.

THE MINING DISASTER.

The terrible explosion at the South Wellington shaft yesterday morning is a disaster rare in the annals of British Columbia mining, for, until this explosion, the working of the coal mines have been comparatively without accident of a serious nature. The event is one that will be deplored by all residents of the country, and the sufferers will have the sympathy of the whole province. Great care has always been taken by the owners and by the government to protect the miners from danger of explosion. We have not been able to ascertain the cause of the accident, which at the present moment seems almost an idle inquiry. It will no doubt be the subject of an official investigation hereafter. Should it be found necessary a generous response will certainly meet any call that may be made for aid in providing for the families of those who have been so suddenly and sadly bereaved.

THE CUSTOMS.

British Columbia entered the confederation July 20th, 1871, and from that period until the present time has paid into the Dominion strong box the sum of $6,517,337.15. Taking the average of population this showing exceeds that of any other province per capita. It has always been a grievance with us that we not only paid more per head into the Dominion treasury than any other province, but also paid higher duties. This can be accounted for from the fact that previous to the opening of the Northern Pacific we were compelled to a great extent to buy at San Francisco, and the freight to that point and commission of merchants there were added to the priece of goods, and duties paid on the advanced price in Victoria. However, this to some extent has been avoided by the opening of through communication from the east to Victoria, and is, no doubt, the cause of the falling off in the customs receipts of 1884 from those of the previous year. The following are the customs collections at the port of Victoria for the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1884:—

Duties	$790,675 91
Miscellaneous	6,687 64
Total	$797,363.55

The following are the customs collections for since 1872, which shows an almost constant increase until the present date:—

THE CHINESE.

As there is no particular demand for Chinese labor at the present time, it is a cause of wonderment where the large consignments of Celestials that are constantly arriving go to. Three hundred more have arrived by the barque F. P. Litchfield, now lying in Victoria harbor. The most that is seen of them is while they are passing through the city with their odd baggage, to Chinatown, where they disappear, and are never more distinguishable from those that are already there. An inquiry among some of the Chinese yesterday elicited the opinion that more than enough were in the country six months ago, and that it was only by misrepresentation on the part of the rich merchants who bring them, that they come. Promises are put forward to the poorer Chinese at home, and they are induced to bind themselves over to a certain wage, and to pay for their passage from that gradually. As their salary will amount to from fifty cents to seventy-five cents per day, and out of this the board is deducted, it takes from four to ten years for them to pay off their agreement. Some do not mind this, as their life has been previously nothing better than slavery, and the continued serfdom does not gall them. Others, though, have much fault to find; but as they can do nothing to better their condition, they are forced to submit. One prominent Chinaman expressed the belief that something ought to be done to restrain the influx; that the amount be limited to a certain number annually, as under the present system he saw nothing but starvation for not only those who came, but also for the Chinese already here. There is no doubt but that a number find their way by crooked means and ways that are dark to the other side of the line, but the proportion is small—not more than one in a hundred. Hence the query, What is to be done with the ever arriving Chinese? The question is one that will soon have to be dealt with in a practical way by the Dominion authorities, and the quicker they become impressed with the urgency of the matter the better. During the past three months over one thousand celestials have come to our shores, and there is already more than a sufficiency in the country. How, then, are the new-comers to exist!

THE franchise bill in England seems to be the hinge on which political questions are turning. The government feels its importance. The amendment extending the franchise to women was defeated, to the great disappointment of many who foresaw in this measure the beginning of the political equality of women. The Irish amendment, which would have excluded Ireland from the benefits of the franchise, was also properly defeated, and the Irish leaders are now straining every nerve to bring about the passage of the bill. The government party feel that a great deal depends upon it, and the whole country is waiting with eager interest its progress in Parliament. According to long-established precedent, should the bill fail to pass, the ministry would be expected to resign; but this they evidently do not expect to do, and it has been suggested that in case the bill passes safely through the Commons, but apprehensions should arise as to its fate in the upper house, Gladstone might resort to a plan that has been successfully tried before—that is, to appoint a number of new peers sufficient to defeat the Salisbury party. This has often been done to carry through a favorite ministerial scheme. Premier Earl Grey, to strengthen his party and cabinet in the Lords, appointed forty new peers in 1831-33, and Gladstone has heretofore resorted to the same expedient. This is the reason that the upper house, which used to get along with less than one hundred peers, now numbers five hundred and nine.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., June 30.—An outrage was perpetrated on Saturday night by the crew of the bark Lady Elebank. They broke into the Catholic church at St. Mary's in St. Mary's Bay and demolished the furniture and appointments of sanctuary, destroyed the tabernacle, abstracted the chalice ciboriems and other sacred vessels, smashed the candelabra and strewed the debris about the streets and in various ways descreated the church. Five were arrested as soon as the knowledge of the descreation of the church spread among the Catholic population. Not less than 500 boats were manned for the purpose of scuttling and firing the vessel. The influence of the parish priest and supplying merchants prevented destruction of the ship and cargo.

ORANGE RIOTS IN ST. JOHNS, NEWFOUNDLAND.

Guns Fired into Houses and Windows Smashed with Stones.

Vessels Seeking Shelter from a Storm are Forced to Go to Sea.

(Exclusive to The Colonist.)

ST. JOHNS (N. F.), June 30.— Two Orange outrages are reported from the northward. At Twillingate sixteen loaded guns were fired into the house of Captain Wrey, and the windows were smashed with huge stones. The Wreys are one of only three Catholic families in Twillingate.

At Greenspond Harbor four southern vessels took refuge from a southwest gale and floating fields of ice.

On Tuesday last the Orangemen attacked the crews when on shore, maimed them brutally, and pursued them to the vessels with large ballast stones, smashing the companion doors and skylights of the cabin, stoves and furniture, breaking the bulwarks and forcing the vessels to push out into the storm and ice.

Dominion Day.

To-morrow is the seventeenth anniversary of the confederation of the various provinces into the Dominion of Canada, and the thirteenth anniversary of the advent of British Columbia into the confederation. It will be generally observed as a holiday by the business community and the public, as a matter of course, but not with that enthusiasm with which it would have been had the various promises of the Dominion with the province been faithfully carried out. A number of excursions are arranged for, and the day will pass in quiet recreation.

The Methodist Church and Sunday school will picnic to Pedder Bay, the steamer Amelia leaving Turner, Beeton & Co's wharf at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.

The Baptist Church will picnic near Cadboro Bay on Mr. Baker's grounds.

The First Presbyterian Church will hold their annual picnic at Beacon Hill Park.

De Vivo's opera company will give a very fine programme of English and Italian selections in the evening.

There will be a social hop in the Theatre Royal in the evening, given by the Brunswick.

The Umatilla.

The work of raising this unfortunate steamer still goes on, and every effort is being made to hurry matters forward to a successful issue. Four regular divers are employed, and two from the Constance are also at work a considerable portion of the time. These divers are kept busy from six in the morning until six in the evening. About forty men are employed altogether, including divers, carpenters, laborers, etc. An effort was made some time ago to get the vessel on an even keel, which would have greatly facilitated the work of raising her, but the effort was not successful, and the original plan is being carried out. On account of the slanting position in which the steamer lies it requires a great amount of extra labor in sending material to the divers; whereas, did she lie on an even keel, the contractors think that the Umatilla would now be afloat in the harbor. As it is, it will take several weeks yet before the final effort will be made, and she be brought to the surface.

Personal.

Mr. Geo. Werner, business manager for Ben Cotton, arrived in the city yesterday from Portland.

Mr. Eugene McPhetridge, traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific railway, Onderdonk contract, left this morning for Yale, accompanied by his wife.

Mr. Hugh Wallace, of Marder, Luse & Co., type founders, leaves for Seattle this morning.

Rev. A. Shildrick came down from New Westminster by the Enterprise yesterday.

Mr. Justice McCreight returned by the steamer North Pacific yesterday.

THE GOLDSTREAM ROAD.—As is already known the contractor skipped out last week, leaving his workmen, to a considerable extent at least, unpaid. The Government have, we learn, decided to place Mr. John Nicholson (inspector of the work) in charge and complete the road by day labor, thus extending a measure of relief to the men by giving them immediate work.

THE COUNTY COURT.—This court will be held on Thursday, 3d July inst., being the 1st Thursday in the month.

FEARFUL DISASTER!

Terrific Explosion at the South Wellington Mine.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE.

MINERS MANGLED AND BURNED.

(Special to the Colonist.)

NANAIMO, June 30.

A mining disaster which has no parallel in the history of British Columbia occurred this morning at No. 3 shaft, Wellington colliery, operated by Robt. Dunsmuir & Sons.

About fifty men and boys were at work in the mine at the time of the explosion which took place at 7 o'clock, making a frightful noise. Work was at once commenced to extricate the men from their terrible grave, and at 1 o'clock eleven bodies had been recovered, which were mangled and disfigured beyond recognition. The scene at the mouth of the shaft as the bodies were brought to the surface was heartrending. The blanched anxious faces of those who had relatives and friends in the mine, and their sorrow when the shattered remains were placed on the ground is beyond description. The following are known to have been instantly killed by the explosion: —

John Eno, a native of England, leaves a wife and four children, resident in Cedar district. Michael Wilkinson, a native of the north of England, leaves a wife and eight children at Wellington. Benjamin Jose, a native of Nevada City, Cala., leaves a wife and one child, resident at Wellington. Jas. Donough, a native of Kentucky, aged 30 years, single. John Gill, a native of Ayrshire, aged 36 years. John Jones, a native of North Wales, single, aged about 42 years. Martin and John Lowrei, brothers, single; natives of Devonshire, England. Barney Irenkes, a native of the United States, single; aged about 28 or 30 years. John Winters, a native of What Cheer, Iowa, where he leaves a wife and three children. Winters has only been in the province a few weeks. John Frear, a native of London, England, widower; leaving several children, resident in the United States; aged 50 years. Frear was well known in Victoria, where he is said to have considerable property. Jas. Coandley, a native of Staffordshire, England, and lately from Carbonade. Thos. Pettigrew, a native of Scotland. Dan. Evans, a native of Swanse, Wales, where he leaves a wife and family aged 40; Harry Arnold, from Pennsylvania, single, aged 35; and only been here five or six weeks; Daregone Dominie, a native of Turin, Italy, single, aged 22; Christopher Hoskins, a native of Cornwall, Eng., leaves a wife and four children resident at Wellington, aged 40; Berdotti Vittoria, a native of Turin, Italy, single, aged 25; Issuffo Hitro, a native of Turin, Italy, aged 27; Moletto Domiena, a native of Turin, Italy, single, aged 38; Camillo Bellano, a native of Perenanza, Italy, single, aged 25; Virginia and Roborto Rosolta, brothers, natives of Parma, Italy, single, and aged 32 and 29. Injured:—Charles McGargle, bruised about the head and hands, Henry Roberts, burned badly about the arms and face, not dangerously; Thomas Jones, and Simpson, cut and bruised about the head; two Italians were also cut about the head, and three Chinamen were burnt and bruised about the head and face.

The following telegram was received at a late hour last night:

"Fifteen bodies altogether have been recovered. It is supposed that nine more are still in the mine; all white miners.

From some unaccountable reason, the line was shut down, and further particulars could not be had.

At 11:30 yesterday morning Mr. R. Dunsmuir received news of the explosion by telegram, and at once made arrangements to go to the scene of the disaster, and departed at 1:30 by the Princess Louise.

As far as the output of coal is concerned, the explosion will not affect the working of the other portions of the mine.

ACCIDENT.—While a little daughter of Mrs. Leadbeater, James Bay, was on her way to church on Sunday evening, a large dog ran furiously against her and knocked her from the sidewalk into the ditch. She fell on a pointed stick which ran into her leg and ripped it to the bone for several inches in length. The little girl walked home where the wound was carefully attended to, and she is now doing nicely. The dog had just been loosed, and was rushing frantically down the sidewalk.

THE STEAMER R. P. Rithet is afloat again. It was the intention to copper her bottom, but finding it in good repair, it will not be done until fall. She will take her place on the Nanaimo route and, we understand, will carry passengers to that point on Wednesday at 25 cents per head, throwing in the return trip free. Dissatisfied passengers will be given a chromo.

THE FOURTH.—There will be a Fourth of July celebration at Union Grove, San Juan Island, when an oration will be delivered and horse, foot and sack races will take place, ending with a grand ball in the evening.

POLICE COURT.—The only cases before the court yesterday were for drunkenness, amounting in all to four, who were fined five shillings, except one man who forfeited his bail to the amount of $5.

The Snow Flake.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 28th, 1884.

We have carefully analyzed the "Snow Flake Baking Powder," and find it composed entirely of Pure Cream of Tartar, Bicarbonate of Soda and Corn Starch, without any Ammonia, Alum, or any injurious ingredients. LANGLEY & Co., Chemists.

This Baking Powder is rapidly marching into favor in every household where it has been introduced. Since the time the manufacturer issued a $50,000 challenge against the alum and ammonia baking powders, in which he exposed these injurious compounds, the Snow Flake has gone steadily ahead. No less than $24,000 worth of it was shipped into Oregon, Washington Territory and Idaho in one week in March. The agent, W. R. Elliott, is here and is meeting with unprecedented success. He shows the deleterious compounds of which other baking powders are made, of which he gives ocular demonstration in every instance.

A NOVEL BIRTHPLACE AND A SUDDEN DECEASE.—Shortly before eight o'clock last evening some peculiar noises were heard emanating from beneath the sidewalk in front of the Occidental hotel. On tearing up a couple of planks, it was discovered that a diminutive canine belonging to the proprietor had given birth to a litter of ten puppies. Eight were put into a bag, tied securely, and consigned to the deep.

[Before Sir Mathew B. Begbie, C. J.]

Samuel Sea vs. Alex. McLean and Jas. Stewart, trustees of the late Robert Anderson.

Yesterday this case was brought before the Chief Justice, and a special jury were sworn consisting of Joseph Wilson, foreman, John Russell, S. J. Pitts, Thos. Nuttall, H. F. Heisterman, C. E. Redfern, Thos. Earle and T. Charles.

The facts are briefly as follows:—In November last the defendants as trustees under the will of the deceased advertised for sale part of section 78, Victoria, situate and lying between the Burnside and Carey roads containing 60 acres more or less. The sale was made upon the understanding that the acreage was to be ascertained subsequently to same. The land was knocked down to the plaintiff at $36 per acre. Upon a survey being made it was ascertained that there were 117.35 acres in the plot. The plaintiff was willing to carry out the purchase and tendered the full amount of purchase money, namely $4224. The defendants refused to execute a deed for more than 60 acres. The action was brought for a specific performance. The jury found that the plaintiff was entitled to a verdict for $540 and interest from the 30th Nov., $48 50 for surveyor's charges, $12.50 money of expenses; and further found that the auctioneer was authorized to sell more than 60 acres. The legal proposition as to whether the plaintiff is entitled to a specific performance of the contract will be decided by his lordship on a further motion for judgment.

Mr. Eberts and Mr. Wilson (Davie & Wilson) for plaintiff, and Mr. Drake, Q.C., and Mr. Walls, instructed by Mr. Hett, for defendant.

THE Chinese were landed from the Litchfield yesterday afternoon in the Dolphin. It was a novel and amusing sight to see them as they clambered with their truck from the Dolphin over the Pilot and on to Welch-Rithet's wharf, where they met the obliging landing waiter, and had their goods overhauled. From his hands they passed to the collector of the wharfage dues, and many disputes and a lot of heathen language resulted. However, they got through it all and made for Chinatown. Before starting, though, some urchins took hold of the rope and made each John bow before allowing him to proceed.

A malicious boy created a panic in a Montreal hotel one day last week by thrusting his head into the dining-room and calling out: "Here comes an officer from New York with a warrant." It was several hours before the most nervous guests could be persuaded to come out of the woods and return to their meals.—Daily Graphic.

IF there is anything that is calculated to make a woman dwell on suicide, it is after she has spent twenty minutes fixing her bangs, ten minutes powdering her chin, and five minutes putting her room to rights, to rush to the door in answer to the bell, and to be met with the inquiry, "Buy some nice family soap, madam; eleven cakes for fifteen cents."—Yonkers Statesman.

WHILE the barque Fred P. Litchfield was being towed to the dock yesterday morning she ran on a rock in the harbor and stuck fast until six o'clock last evening, when she was safely towed off by the Pilot and Dolphin, sustaining no injury from the shock.

ON THE MOVE.—The building on Government street north of Johnson, occupied for some time past as a blacksmith shop by Borde & Canlin, is being prepared for removal to Cormorant street opposite the City Hall. We believe it is the intention to erect a block of stores on the old site.

DEATH.—We announce with regret that Mrs. Chas. Giesselman, who has been unwell for some time past died about nine o'clock yesterday morning.

The Opera To-night.

To-night the supplementary season of opera commences at Philharmonic Hall. The programme far excels in excellence any of the preceding ones, and is interspersed with English ballads by Madam Godini, Miss Wadsworth and Mr. W. H. Kinross. This is a move in the right direction, as our public either can not or will not appreciate Italian artists as they ought to be appreciated. The reserved seats can also be had without the extra twenty-five cents, and as to-morrow is a general hiliday, and Hibben & Co. will be closed, to accommodate these wishing to reserve seats, Mr. Kurtz, at his cigar store, has kindly agreed to reserve seats for any who may wish them. This Company really deserve better patronage than has yet been accorded them, and now that they have yielded to the popular desire for English selections, we trust a crowded house will be the result. We append the programme for to-night:

FRIST PART.

1. Violin and Piano, Varia's on "Il Trovatore," Alard. Madame Bologna and Prof. Borra.
2. Barcarole, "Sull Onda," T. Mattei. Signor Bologna.
3. Ballad, "Down the Burn Davy Love." Madame Gouni.
4. Duett, "La Favorita," Donizetti. Madame Zepplili and Sig. Villani.
5. Romanza, "Martha," Flotow. Sig. Baldatza.
6. Ballad, "Waiting," Millard. Miss Eno Wadsworth.
7. Grand Aria, "Don Carlos," Verdi. Sig. Bologna.
8. Aria, "Romeo and Juliet," Bellini. Madame Zeppilli.
9. Song, "Sailing," Marks. Mr W. H. Kinross.

Part second will consist of the 1st and 2d Acts of "The Barber of Seville," with the following cast:

Rosina	Madame Godini
Lindoro	Sig. Baldanza
Figaro (the Barber)	Sig. Vivani.

New Westminster.

(Guardian.)

Mr. McColl, the junior partner in the law firm of Corbould & McColl, left by Thursday's boat for Portland. He goes to meet his affianced bride, a young English lady, and will return with her to this city in a month. We are glad to hear of this young man's good fortune and we wish him many happy years of married life.

Margaret Mills died on Thursday night last; she has been insane since 1870. She was the last of the two sisters of that name, both having died in the Asylum. She was a native of Ireland, aged 43 years.

Ben Cotton.

The Ben Cotton Company, which has been on the Mexico, will be released on Wednesday, and will commence a week's engagement at the Philharmonic on Thursday evening. Not only for the reputation of Mr. Cotton and his company as artists of the first water, but the unfortunate detention on the steamer, will no doubt give him crowded houses during his stay here. Everywhere the company have played they have been spoken of in terms of the highest praise.

THE CATHEDRAL.—Mr. W. M. Cross, the organist of Christ Church cathedral for the past three years, played for the last time on Sunday evening. He played one of his own compositions, an andante movement in E major, and for the closing voluntary played a gaand march also of his composing. After the services Mr. Cross, at the request of a number of ladies and gentlemen, played several voluntaries in his masterly way. He leaves the cathedral assured of having the appreciation of the congregation, and their confidence of his attaining a high place in the future. We understand that he soon intends to take a thorough course of study under the best masters.

POST OFFICE.—The new boxes, 500 in number, are now completed in the post office, and are ready for rental. A large number of them are already taken, all of the lock drawers having been rented a month ago. The addition of these boxes have made a decided improvement in the appearance of the office, and the increased accommodation for the distribution of the mail and transaction of business meets with general approval, and will no doubt be sufficient for the requirements for some time to come.

THE little Johns and big Johns were enjoying themselves muchly yesterday in flying their peculiar kites, some of which were singing high up in the air with a noise like that made by a planing machine.

LANGTRY.—We understand that Mrs. Langtry may play an engagement of three nights in Victoria while on her northwestern tour.

ST. ANN'S CONVENT SCHOOL.—To-morrow the pupils of St. Ann's Convent will have their annual public examination.

NAVAL.—The war vessel Constance steamed out into the Straits to-day for gun practice.

Mayne Island School Examination.

TO THE EDITOR:—The examination took place at this school on Friday last, and there were present the hon. Mr. Smithe, who represents the district in the legislature, the trustees, and a number of the parents of the children attending the school. The examination was conducted by the teacher, Mr. Bannerman, and, considering that the school has not been in operation a full year, the progress made by the pupils was gratifying in the extreme. A few prizes were awarded by Mr. Smithe, and in a short address the hon. gentleman expressed himself delighted with the examination, and paid a well merited compliment to the teacher, whom, he said, had evidently devoted himself to his work most assiduously. He continued: Mr. Bannerman had won the confidence alike of parents and children, without which any teacher would have uphill work, and counseled the parents to lend the teacher always their moral support, in the full confidence that their children would be benefitted thereby. Mr. Robson, chairman of the board of trustees, and Mr. Bannerman, the teacher, also addressed the children.

Mr. Robson referred to the question of education on Mayne Island, and said the settlers were pleased to have him there at the examination, so that he could see how much good had been done by him in securing for the children of the Island an opportunity to receive an education and thereby grow up as good and useful members of society. He thought the children would have reason to remember Mr. Smithe's efforts on their behalf with gratitude, and he was sure the parents would.

All present expressed themselves pleased with the day's proceedings, and hoped Mr. Bannerman would return to the school again after the holidays. COM.

A Queer Case of Doubtful Identity.

NEW YORK, June 20—Mrs. Isabella Curran engaged rooms in Brooklyn a few days ago. She was accompanied by a son 14 years old, who was sent to school. Saturday last while out shopping she met Thomas Carragher, about her own age, proprietor of a dry goods store at 228 North Fifth street, which is almost opposite to her apartments. When the lady came face to face with the merchant she threw up her hands and exclaimed "Patrick, my husband; to think that I should find you after all these years."

Mr. Carragher was very much surprised at having a woman address him in the street as her husband, when another woman occupied the wife's place in his house, and at once turned on his heel and walked away.

Finding her advances repelled Mrs. Curran hastened to her home, and informed her son that she had met his father, who deserted them in California seven years ago.

A warrant was granted for the dry goods dealer's arrest, and he was brought before the woman and her son.

"That's my father," spoke up the 14-year-old boy, who stood inside the railing.

"Do you me an to say you know me?" asked Carragher, as he scowled savagely at the lad.

"Yes, I do; you are my father, and you know it as well as I do. I've got two brothers in San Francisco, and they known you too. You ran away from mother when I was 7 years old. Uncle, who keeps the Atlantic hotel in San Francisco, will remember you, I think."

The man positively denied the boy's story to Judge Nacher, who presided, and said he could prove that he never lived on the western slope. The boy's story was so straightforward and told with so much honesty that Carragher was sent to jail to await examination.

Fashion Notes.

There are but few but will be delighted with a return of the jersey to favor. Even children and young girls wear this elegant article, which is made in silk. The underneath corsage is in faille, and is made so that nothing can prevent the jersey moulding the figure. The favorite returns improved, and it can be worn as easily as any other corsage. It is light and elastic, and now appears as a veritable jacket, buttoning in front, and forming a basque, with a large plait behind.

TRAVELLING SUITS.

The most fashionable modes are using heavy mohairs and alpacas for travelling dresses. These come in gray, ecru and tan-brown shades, and are made up in the severe tailor styles that are now in favor with ladies who like English fashions. Such dresses are merely stitched on the edges, or are broidered with rows of mohair braid; but for those who prefer more dressy costumes, velvet borders are placed around the skirt, and there are wide bands of velvet up each side, that are disclosed by the open sides of the deep apron drapery; there is also a vest, collar and cuffs of the velvet.

STRIPES, CHECKS, CROSS-BARS,

And dull plaids are the designs of the English rough cloths most used for travelling cloaks, and there are also mixtures of many colored threads without any special design.

SMALL BONNETS AND ROUND HATS

Of compact shape are chosen to match the dress of the long wrap used for travelling.

NECK WEAR.

The neck is dressed severely at present with street and travelling dresses, and for morning dresses in the house also. The straight high English collar of linen with the square corners broadne over slightly and a row of very delicate embroidery is the favorite choice.

Household Hints.

To Prepare Salsify,—Salsify, or vegetable oysters, are improved in flavor greatly if, after being thoroughly washed in two or three waters, they are boiled with their jackets on. These can be very easily removed, and will look and be perfectly clean. If salsify is scraped, as is the usual practice, much of the flavor is lost, and it never looks quite clean.

Potato Omelette.—Grate three mealy boiled potatoes, beat three eggs, and mix these with three tablespoonfuls of milk. Add salt, white pepper, and any herb to flavor. Mince three ounces of ham or bacon in small dice, fry these in the pan; add a piece of butter, put in the mixed potatoes and eggs, stir all until set; then leave it to brown. Fold over and serve.

Patty Cakes.—If the cook has a little pie-crust or even a little of her best puff paste left after making pies, let her use it in this way: Line some patty pans with it, bake it, then put a teasponful of jelly or jam into each one, and pour enough boiled custard over each to fill it. If a pretty-pan pie is an instrument of happiness to the children, let it not be despired.

Wedding-cake Bags.—A late and pretty fancy is the making of satin bags in which to send wedding-cake to absent friends. Make them of pink or blue, draw them together with a narrow ribbon like an old-fashioned work-bag. Decorate with the monogram or initials of bride and groom. The cake should be wrapped in the kind of paper which confectioners use about fresh caudies.

Macaroni Soup.—Boil together the bones and stuffing of a roast chicken and a steak bone, with half an onion and a bit of red pepper. The next day take off all the fat and put the stock on to heat. When it boils add salt to taste and two sticks of macaroni broken in short bits and soaked an hour in tepid water. Grate into the soup one good-sized potato, half a small turnip, half a carrot. Boil well and add a dessert-spoonful of Harvey's sauce.

Fig Cake.—A novelty in a fig cake is this: Make after the following recipe, and add to it one pound and a quarter of figs; cut the figs in thin slices or strips; dredge them with flour before putting them into the dough: one cup of butter, one and three-quarters of a cup of sugar, one of sweet milk, three pints of flour and two teasponfuls and a half of baking powder, the whites of ten eggs. As injuring the fig flavor, no spices or extract should be added. Bake in a moderate oven and be sure to line the tin with buttered paper. Frost the top only of the cake. A few drops of vanilla may be put into the frosting.

German Pancakes.—German pancakes are make of dough prepared as if for plain fried cakes. Roll quite thin, cut out with a plain cooky cutter; on the top of one piece put some jelly; or thick jam; with a teaspoonful is a sufficient quantity; put another piece of the dough over this one; do not press it down in the center at all, but press the edges firmly together, and if necessary wet them a little to make them adhere; then fry them in hot lard, just as you fry cakes. They should be globe shaped when done. You can picture to yourself what effect the German pancake has upon the youthful imagination!

To Make a Young Fried Chicken Out of an Old One.—Parboil the chicken, and when the wing—the toughest part of any fowl—can be pierced with a broom splint without effort, take it out of the kettle, drain it well, and cut in pieces as for a fricassee. Put one pint of cream into a large frying-pan, let it become heated, then lay the chicken into the pan Let it cook in the cream until it is all of a rich brown; then pour the cream out into a small sauce-pan, put a lump of butter in with the chicken; after it melts turn the chicken over, so that it will be browned alike on both sides. Thicken the cream with a little flour, and serve as gravy in a boat, or after putting the chicken on a platter, pour the cream over it.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Drinking Habits.

Says the Detroit Free Press:—"He drinks too much" is the objection which is now most frequently urged against applicants for business positions, and decides the case against them. They are not drunkards; by no means. If they were they would stand no show at all. Business men have got clear by the point where they will employ a man that gets drunk. But they are now drawing the line at the man who is in the habit of drinking. He is a good salesman, or a quick and accurate bookkeeper; pleasant, obliging and all that. But he drinks too much. He is just what we want, if he would only let whiskey alone," or " would not fill himself up with beer." "Yes, smart fellow, but he sets 'em up too often." "Yes, the place was vacant but I promised it to another man. He is not what I want altogether, and is not as smart as the other men. but he dosen't drink." "I've got through making an inebriate's home of my establishment. I can get men who dose't drink and I prefer them. I've undertaken to reform half a dozen bright, smart young fellows, but it always costs me more than they were worth, and I never succeeded after all. I won't have 'em around." Such are the remarks which now prevail in the business world. when the question of employment is concerned. The man who makes a business of drinking, who cannot let a day go by without "taking something," and that pretty often, is being counted out in competition. Even employers who drink themselves are not furnishing occupatiants for drinking clerks and assistants.
